

Resources for the Family Historian at the Long Beach Family History Center

Have you been wondering what a Family History Center (FHC) is? Aren't Family History Centers just for Mormons? What does it cost to use a FHC? What is unique about the Long Beach FHC? Here's your chance to find out the answers to these questions and more! Join us for this special "before hours" orientation class exclusively for members of Questing Heirs.

Where: 3701 Elm Avenue, Long Beach in Bixby Knolls
(The FHC is located at the southwest corner of the building)
Parking is located on the northeast corner of Long Beach Blvd & 37th St
Thomas Guide Los Angeles County Page 765 D7 & E7
Long Beach Transit Routes # 51 and # 52 serve the Long Beach FHC

When: Saturday, February 9, 2008

9:00 am – 10:00 am

Orientation Class for Members of Questing Heirs

Presented by Ginger Attwood, Director and Kathy Sherman,
Assistant Director of the Long Beach Family History Center

10:00 am – 2:00 pm

Family History Center Open for Research

Coaching: Beginning at 10:00 am, John McCoy will be offering one-on-one personal coaching to help you break through your "brick walls" using the resources available at the Long Beach Family History Center. Since John has retired, he has made the Long Beach FHC his main research facility. So bring your genealogical problems, and let's find out which ones can be solved at this location.

