

Resources for the Family Historian at the Long Beach Public Library

Isn't the Long Beach Public Library (LBPL) just for residents of the City of Long Beach? Does the LBPL have materials that can help me research outside of Long Beach? What does it cost for a library card? What is unique about the LBPL? Here's your chance to find out the answers to these questions and more! Join us for this special "before hours" orientation class exclusively for members of Questing Heirs.

Where: 101 Pacific Avenue, Long Beach in Downtown
(The Library is located at the southeast corner of the Civic Center)
Parking is located in the parking structure on Broadway between Cedar & Chestnut. There is a charge for parking.
Thomas Guide Los Angeles County Page 825 D1
Long Beach Transit Mall serves the Long Beach Civic Center. You can ride the Metro Blue Line or the following buses: Long Beach Transit, Metro # 232, OCTA # 60 or Torrance Transit # 3 to the Transit Mall.

When: Saturday, March 22, 2008

9:00 am – 10:00 am

Orientation Class for Members of Questing Heirs

Presented by Claudine Burnett, History Librarian

10:00 am – 5:00 pm

Library Open for Research

Library Card: Any California resident may get a Long Beach Public Library Card! You must have picture identification with your name and current home address. Identification can be a California ID or California driver's license.

